

ETI Human Rights Essentials

Navigating human rights in business can feel overwhelming, especially when your role already demands so much.

Whether you're taking your first steps or you're an experienced practitioner looking to refresh your approach, this four-module, online course gives you exactly what you need – solid foundations, confidence – and valuable tools you can use right away.

Expert-led sessions

Real-world focus

Network with peers

Choose your modules

To book, contact training@inherentlyhuman.co.uk
+44 (0)7813 150855

ETI members: £475 + VAT per module
Non-members: £595 + VAT per module
10% block booking discount available

Book your place now

Module 1: The foundations of human rights and business

07 October 2025

09:15 – 15:30 BST

Trainer: Gabbi Wass

Discover the origins of human rights, explore legislation, and discuss real-life human rights issues in the supply chain.

Module 2: Protecting human rights

16 October 2025

09:15 – 15:30 BST

Trainer: Steve Craig

Learn how to improve visibility of your supply chain, identify human rights risks, and explore meaningful stakeholder engagement.

Module 3: Respecting human rights

03 November 2025

09:15 – 15:30 GMT

Trainer: Hilary Murdoch

Discover how to manage human rights risks through audits and purchasing practices, and learn to measure your impact.

Module 4: Remedying human rights violations

13 November 2025

09:15 – 15:30 GMT

Trainer: Bev Hall

Explore what it takes to develop effective grievance mechanisms with stakeholders and make remedy a reality.

"The course made me think hard about those at the start of the supply chain. The world of business and human rights is changing at speed and we all need to think about how we adapt."

– Hannah Gibson, Starbucks